

Mary has shared some examples of embroidery her group practices, which adds relaxation and therapy to help their trauma healing, along with the joy of creating something beautiful together.

Mothers' UNION
Christian care for families

We give thanks for the love and care you have shown in reading about the issues faced in our country and our journey healing. We know that challenges are faced by many around the world, and we draw strength from the prayer and support received through the wonderful fellowship of our Mothers' union.
