

Safeguarding in Mothers' Union

Safeguarding & Insurance

Insurance cover for activities where members come into contact with children, young people or vulnerable adults whilst representing Mothers' Union is provided on the basis that safeguarding policies, procedures and practices are in place and being followed. Failing to meet this requirement could invalidate the terms of our insurance and result in dioceses being liable for any claim made against them.